

Speakers & Performers

We've put together this list because it's handy to have a ready list of speakers, musicians and performers for those looking for someone for a specific event. If you regularly speak or perform in churches, community events or schools to share your Christian faith and a church can recommend you, we'd love to include you on this list. If you've used a speaker and would like to recommend them to others, please contact us as well. lbartlett@nswactbaptists.org.au or sre@nswactbaptists.org.au. (Last Updated March 2016)
